Arrival and Departure of Railroad Trains, and of other boats.

Extraordinary Rumors in Paris—Another Farewell to the Battle of Solferino.

Paris Correspondence of the London Star, June 25. The rumors of the London Star, June 25, were the first of a series of reports which have been published in the London press, and which have been repeated in the other journals.

The Cannon Explosion at Washington.

From the National Intelligencer of July 15. A shocking accident took place yesterday morning at the Navy Yard, in this city. It was the bursting of a heavy ship's gun, which was undergoing trial on the battery platform, for the purpose of firing her range.

The Emperor's Visit to the Front.

Col. Hayes noted that he would regard the election of a black Republican President as a sufficient cause for the South to declare her political connection with the Federal Government.

The Weather and Crops.

The weather yesterday was more favorable for the wheat crop than either of the two preceding days—being dry, with a fresh cool breeze from the north, which did not, however, prevent the crops from being in the best of health.

Despatches—Breaking up of the Austrian Empire.

Correspondence of the London Times. VIENNA, Saturday, June 25. The officers of the Italian army state that the men under their command daily become more difficult to manage, and facts have come to my knowledge which lead me to think it would be wise to disarm all the troops.

California Politics.

The Anti-Leopold Democracy of California have met in Convention and adopted resolutions reaffirming the Cincinnati Platform; denouncing the Administration of James Buchanan, for its outrage on the rights of the people of Kansas; its unwarranted prosecution of tried and worthy Democrats; and its gross extravagance, mismanagement, and corruption.
